

SILVER - an improving school

Leadership:

Commitment from school leadership to support the school's participation in the campaign

Students:

Opportunity for pupils to be involved in the White Ribbon Campaign

Staff:

Some staff training on issues around gender violence

Whole school activity:

Assessment of attitudes and beliefs of staff and pupils. Outreach to families and wider community through additional activities

Rewards

Schools will be awarded a Silver certificate and the right to use the logo. They will be offered support from White Ribbon Campaign education staff to progress.

GOLD - a safer school

Leadership:

Senior staff supply a lead in school's participation in the campaign

Students:

All pupils encouraged to be involved in the White Ribbon Campaign. Issues discussed at school council and evidence of pupil voice.

Staff:

All staff offered training on issues around gender violence and more than 50% engaged

Whole school activity:

Evidence of change in attitudes and beliefs. Regular outreach to families and wider community through additional activities

Rewards

Schools will gain the right to display and use the Gold certificate and logo and will be invited to attend the Gold White Ribbon Awards Training Conference.

PLATINUM - an excellent school

Leadership:

Majority of senior staff participate in campaigning

Students:

Mass campaigning inside school and indications of students undertaking campaign work outside the school. Pupils engaged in training, peer mentoring and school networking.

Staff:

More than 80% of staff engaged in self development and training

Whole school activity:

Evidence of cultural change outside the school supported by the school

External activities:

School willing to support other schools which are just starting on their journey to Silver awards

Rewards

The award of Platinum status will be announced to the DCSF and such schools will be regarded as and entitled to describe themselves as Regional Centres of Excellence in developing Healthy Safe Relationships.

Schools which achieve this level of excellence will be invited to support other schools in improving their awards status.